

Guidance for holders of the ECOO European Diploma in Optometry on how to reference the qualification

- If you have been awarded the ECOO European Diploma you may use the prefix “EurOptom”, after your name, in addition to any other titles you have e.g. John Doe, BSc(Hons), MCOptom, EurOptom
- When referencing your qualification on a CV or in other types of communication, the full name of the qualification is: “ECOO European Diploma in Optometry” .
- You may also use this logo:

It can be downloaded from the ECOO website.

- LinkedIn: You may add your qualification to your education profile on LinkedIn, join the private EDO alumni group and follow the LinkedIn page for the ECOO European Diploma in Optometry: <https://www.linkedin.com/school/europeandiploma-in-optometry/>
- Please note that the ECOO European Diploma in Optometry is an accredited title that does not replace your national qualification (i.e. Bachelor or Master degree) but is a valuable addition to that, showcasing your level of education in optometry, and it increases the credibility of your professional profile. For more information, please visit the recognition section on the ECOO website.
